

Syllabus Coverage: November 2018

Subject	Curriculum
	CAPS NSC (South Africa)	Cambridge (International)	Zimbabwe
English	Full language syllabus Partial literature syllabus	Full language syllabus Partial literature syllabus	Full language syllabus Partial literature syllabus
Mathematics	Full syllabus *Circle geometry resources vary in pedagogical content	Full syllabus for core and extended programmes	Full syllabus for Mathematics and Additional Mathematics
Physical Science	Full syllabus	Full syllabus for core and extended programmes including Chemistry	Full syllabus for Physics and Chemistry
Life Science	Partial syllabus	Partial Biology, and Physiology	Partial syllabus—part of Combined Science
Geography	Partial syllabus	Partial syllabus	Partial syllabus with some content for Agricultural Science
History	Partial syllabus (focus on world history)	Partial syllabus (focus on world history)	Partial syllabus (focus on world syllabus)
Visual Art	Partial syllabus (focus on Art History)	Partial syllabus (focus on Art History)
Social Science	Partial syllabus
Economic and Management Science	Partial syllabus
Economics	Partial syllabus (focus on micro- and macro-theory)	Partial syllabus (focus on theory)
Business Studies	Partial syllabus (focus on government interaction)
Mathematical Literacy	Partial syllabus (focus on Grade 12)

School in a Box also boasts an entry-level coding syllabus designed to capture the interest of younger learners. Once they have developed basic skills, they can continue with the Computing course for more advanced students.

Past papers are included in a separate channel for CAPS and the Cambridge syllabus. Subjects and grades vary, but the repository of papers is large, and growing. Please email info@socialproject.co.za if there is a subject you'd like to see past examination papers for.